HYPERION.

Great interest prevails over the fact that the eminent artist Salvini will tonight assume the role of "Hamlet." A fine performance is guaranteed in all respects. Manager Wilkinson's arrangements omit not the slightest necessary detail. The scenic equipment is provided by Salvini and is very fine. In addition there will be used all his armorial properties which were made by R. Cutperli, the famous armorer to the Grand Opera and Comedie Francaise, Paris.

"Mr. Salvini," says the esteemed critic of the New York World, "acted Hamlet from the platform scene to duet. He did not simply read it. The superstition, awe and wonder, the affection for his father, the quality of heaven-pointed revenge, the suspense and grim triumph of the players' scene, the distraught passion with Ophelia, and the final grief at the grave, were furnished with a larger vibration than is usual. To this must be added that the prince—lines—the easy dignity and grace of the royal blood—became throughout a charming investiture. Other actors may have worn more princely trappings. None ever wore so easily and so authoritatively the inherited grace of soul and demeanor of gentle blood."

On Thanksgiving day Mr. Salvini will appear, both at the matinee and at night, in "The Three Guardsmen." Sale of seats now open.

Mrs. Jane May will be seen on Friday night. One of Mr. Daly's most artistic successes was his production a season or so ago of a French pantomime in which Miss Rehan was eminently successful in the character of "Pierrot."

Last week Mr. Daly had another "Pierrot" on his stage in the person of the famous Miss. Jane May, whose reputation in Paris has won her renown for being something unique in her style as well as more original, possibly, than any other pantomime. New Haven is favored in having an early opportunity of seeing her. She made a great hit at Daly's and New Yorkers will welcome her back. The music of the performance is by Thome and the play is by Michel Carre and Jane May herself. Sale of seats now open.

"The Foundling" and Cissy Fitzgerald will appear on Saturday night. "The Man Upstairs" will be the curtain raiser. The sale of seats will open on Thursday.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

"Boccaccio" was presented by the Milton Aborn Opera company last night to a large audience. The opera is old, but was presented by a most excellent company last evening. The finales of the first and second acts were well sung, and the climaxes well worked up. Miss Maud D. Arce made a beautiful Boccaccio, and won favor by her excellent singing. Miss Marie Radcliffe was excellent as Beatrice.

The house was kept in constant roars of merriment by the jokes of Milton Aborn as Lambertuccio. He was ably assisted by J. C. Dewey and Frank Woolley. J. W. Smith made a capital prince and his singing was capital and loudly applauded. The rest of the company was excellent. Herr Tressi, the musical director, has recently returned from South Africa, where he was a well known music teacher. This afternoon the "Pirates of Penzance" will be sung, and to-night the "Chimes of Normandy" will be presented.

In this opera Mr. Aborn makes the greatest hit of the week. His impersonation of Garpard has received great praise throughout the country.

POLY'S WONDERLAND THEATER.

J. W. Kelly, "the rolling mill man," is more than fulfilling every prediction that was made for him when he was described as the greatest monologue entertainer on the stage to-day. Mr. Kelly has no equal in his line, and the way in which he displays this wit is altogether inimitable. One has only to hear him tell one of his funny stories, or satirize some character that every one knows, to realize at once that a rare genius is before him. To see his funny walk when he illustrates some story, or watch the expression of his face, is to enjoy a rare treat. The artists supporting him are excellent. Miss Norma Wills and Montie Collins in their brilliant travesty "Galatea Up to Date" make lots of fun, and the rich soprano voice of Miss Wills is shown to fine advantage in the selections she renders. Extra shows will be given to-morrow, Thanksgiving day, when ladies will be admitted, as they are always in the afternoon, for 10 cents to all parts of the house.

RAILROAD NOTES.

Assessment of Railway Stocks in the State—Electricity vs. Steam.

The state board of equalization has assessed Norwich and Worcester railroad stock at $180 a share, Naugatuck at $217, and Norwich Street railroad at $80.

The Pennsylvania railroad on its Burlington branch is making experiments with electric power in much the same way and with the same success that attended the recent experiments of the New Haven line at Nantasket. A motor car was able to haul two loaded passenger cars at a high speed. A new air-brake worked by electric power has been found to operate successfully.

Oak Hall Clothing Co., 51 Church street, will keep open to-night until 11 o'clock and Thursday until noon.

Milford, Nov. 26.—On Thanksgiving morning at St. Peter's church at ten o'clock there will be morning prayer and an address.

The fifth in the course of readings by Mrs. E. L. Nettleton was given yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dr. King on Broad street. The program consisted of a sketch of the life of Edgar Allan Poe and the recitations "The Raven" and "The Belle"; also some of the poems of Will Carleton.

Last evening the Epworth league of the Taylor Memorial M. E. church held their annual meeting for the election of officers in the chapel at 8 o'clock.

The house of Miss S. N. L. Stowe on Green street has just received an exterior renovation at the hands of Painter T. W. Stowe.

N. R. Bailey has received the contract for putting a furnace in the Methodist parsonage.

Mrs. J. Fowler Willing of New York spent Sunday in town and made three temperance addresses in the interest of the W. C. T. U. In the morning she was at the First church, in the afternoon at the M. E. church, and in the evening at Plymouth. She is a very earnest speaker.

On Thursday evening William Fowler, O. U. A. M., will give their annual masquerade in the town hall. This event promises to be a great success.

The new macadam road is very rapidly nearing completion. When finished it will be a very great improvement.

Mrs. Jonas G. French of Wharf street is very ill.

Mrs. E. B. Holloway and family are to spend a month in Boston this winter.

The "New Haven Methodist," a religious monthly, was given out at the Methodist church on Sunday.

Hon. George M. Gunn is to have the roadway around his place on Golden Hill macadamized.

The union Thanksgiving day service will be held this year at the Plymouth church. There will be preaching by a friend of Rev. Mr. Upson from New Haven.

A large number of young people from this place are attending the Bridgeport Union Business college.

On Thanksgiving eve at St. Mary's hall the first grand concert and social will be given for the benefit of St. Mary's T. A. B. society. Clark's orchestra will be present and Prof. Malone will sing several songs.

Mrs. Mary Cummings, who was so horribly slashed by her drunken husband a few weeks ago and who is now out of danger, has been granted a divorce on the grounds of habitual intemperance and ill treatment.

NORTH HAVEN.

Nov. 25.—The rain on Sunday did not prevent a large assembly to hear a good sermon from Rev. Mr. Lathrop. There were 122 in the Sunday school and a good number at the prayer meeting in the evening.

A series of gospel meetings under the direction of Rev. H. W. Pope of New Haven, will be held in the Congregational church, North Haven, beginning on Sunday, December 1, 1895. Bible readings will be given every afternoon at 2:30, except Monday and Saturday. Preaching service every evening except Saturday.

On Sunday evening Mr. Lyman Bassett read a good paper in Clintonville chapel on "Reminiscences of Christianity as I Found It in England."

Mr. Bassett spoke as one who was talking from experience and was listened to with much interest for forty minutes. A few apt selections from Spurgeon added to the interest. Good music was furnished, Miss Edith Vibbert organist. Mr. C. B. Foster selected appropriate hymns and the congregation sang as if enthused by the speaker to do the best they could in his house.

On next Sunday evening Rev. Addison P. Foster will hold service in Clintonville chapel.

A paper is in circulation to see what interest will be manifested in observing forefathers' day. Committee, S. B. Thorpe, Dr. R. B. Goodyear and E. L. Linsley.

Service in all the churches on Thanksgiving day at 11 o'clock a. m.

Last Saturday Mr. C. N. Turner found this best cow dead in the lot.

Oak Hall Clothing Co., 51 Church street, will keep open to-night until 11 o'clock and Thursday until noon.

To-morrow, probably, a party of experienced travelers employed by Morgan & Wright, Chicago, will reach this city on a special car, which, between November 18 and the day before Christmas, is expected to carry them into about fifty principal cities between Canada and the Gulf, and the Atlantic coast and Missouri river.

The purpose is to show bicycle dealers and riders, by actual demonstration, the simplicity of the Morgan & Wright quick-repair tire. This tire is a distinct improvement upon previous ideas. It enables the bicycle rider to make a PERMANENT REPAIR at the roadside, WITHIN TEN MINUTES, WITHOUT HURRYING.

This quick-repair tire is easily distinguished by its red valve-stem. All riders are invited to ask Morgan & Wright, Chicago, for a beautiful pamphlet (illustrated from life) describing the idea. Meantime, don't forget the household phrase—
